

Dear Pitt -

Ought to have written ^{earlier} but just did not - Am improving slowly & visit but can't say that I think very much of "Cec" she is wild, and it takes some firmness on my part to keep her in the road - I do not like her influence over the two younger girls - and personally I'd be very glad if Dorothy could end her acquaintance - She hasn't one thing to give Alot that would be beneficial - and is a draw-back - now please understand me, I am glad that brought her along just so I could see her - and now the big question is how can we "shed her" - Of course that might result in a worse friend, but yet I'd risk it - there is nothing worth while in Cill - Nellie is better but that is so much above us that I hate to see them hanging on by their skirts and holding her back.

she could get away better, but she is such a boy crazy
----- and I fancy so much that has her handfull entering her guests. - Bought a new car yesterday to replace the one smashed up a few days ago I have to laugh I just wonder what Cile thinks of me - because I have to call her so much, but hang her, she sho' is going to have a car at least when I am looking - Pitt, of course you know I never dabbled in society much when a girl and I may expect too much of girls.
So just use your own judgment but some how I just do not like Cile's influence - and I wish she was free of this larvis outfit - she has too good blood

Is it too late to hinder this next term of school together?
Henry received his discharge ~~just~~ Monday and declared himself - at the River Junction and is up with his people.
The girls are having a great time and Dorothy is fine - She has been over to see papa & sis twice - and will go again - If all would have ^{any} thing to do with other girls

257-700 to drift backwards - — She has nothing to gain - They can never go where she can - Amy does not find that little refinement in a person that Alfred does - — Now, I want not to stay just as she planned and I'll scratch my head & find some way to make her see that Cite is below her, then you will have such a time separating them just lot of love again.
